K9 CASUALTY CARE

Bridging the gap between handlers and prehospital care

WHEN: SEPTEMBER 27 & 28, 2024

TIME: 1pm-8pm, Lunch will be provided

WHERE: Carmel Police Department is 1000 S Rangeline Rd. 46032

INSTRUCTORS: Paravet K9 / Evan Nolte (<https://paravetk9.com>)

This will be a 2-day seminar where the Handler will get classroom/table time for demonstrations and the opportunity to practice with realistic hands-on K9 medical simulation mannequins in emergency and casualty scenarios, gaining critical knowledge for critical moments. Topics to include basic K9 anatomy & vital signs, point of injury care, bandaging, emergency planning & management, evacuation, narcotic toxicity, heat injury, and gastric dilation & volvulus (bloat). Evan Nolte/Owner-Instructor is a former US Paratrooper and Animal Care Sergeant. The majority of his 14-year career was spent working independently of a veterinarian, providing direct medical support to Special Operation dog teams at home and abroad.

COST: $100.00 working spot / $50.00 audit spot
